DEPTH STUDY A: GERMANY 1918-45

- 1 Study the sources, and then answer the questions that follow.

Source A

It really upset us old soldiers to see how quickly the republic stopped using the black-white-red flag of the old Empire. Thousands of soldiers who fought for this flag lie buried in enemy territory. I don't hide the fact that I'm a monarchist. When you've served your country for 30 years you just can't say 'from tomorrow I'm republican'. Don't worry though - I don't think we can bring back the monarchy just now.

A Free Corps Officer speaking in 1919.

Source B

Workers! Party Comrades! Kapp's Putsch has begun. The Free Corps who were afraid they would be disbanded have made an attempt to overthrow the Republic. There is only one way to prevent the return of Wilhelm II. Paralyse all economic activity!

A Social Democrat proclamation of 1920 calling on all workers to strike against the Kapp Putsch.

- (a) (i) Study Source A.

What can you tell from this source about the Free Corps' attitudes towards the new republic? Support your answer with reference to the source. [6]

- (ii) Study Source B.

How far does this source show that the Social Democrats expected the support of the German people? Explain your answer. [7]

- (iii) Study both sources.

Is one of these sources more useful than the other as evidence of the problems of the Weimar government? Explain your answer. [7]

- (b) (i) Give two weaknesses of the Weimar Constitution. [2]

- (ii) What did the Munich Putsch of 1923 hope to achieve? [4]

- (iii) Why was there hyperinflation in 1923? [6]

- (iv) Was the Weimar Government weakened more by hyperinflation than by the Treaty of Versailles? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY B: RUSSIA, 1905-41

- 2 Study the sources, and then answer the questions that follow.

Source A

SIRE, we the workers and people of St. Petersburg, our wives and children and old, helpless parents, come to YOU, SIRE, to seek justice and protection. We are poor and oppressed, worn down by bad treatment. SIRE, we have no strength left. Now death is better than unending suffering.

From Father Gapon's list of complaints, which was to be given to the Tsar on Sunday, 22 January 1905. (Note: SIRE means Tsar Nicholas II)

Source B

Political parties were banned and opponents of the Tsar had to meet in secret. Some opponents believed in peaceful change but still lived in fear of the Okhrana (secret police). Others, more violently minded, lived in exile and plotted revolution.

A British historian describes opposition groups at the beginning of 1905.

- (a) (i) Study Source A.

DEPTH STUDY D: CHINA, 1945-c.1990

- 4 Study the sources, and then answer the questions that follow.

Source A

Have no fear of chaos. The more chaos you create and the longer the disruption continues the better. Disorder and chaos are always good. They make problems clear. But never use weapons. It is never a good thing to open fire.

Mao Zedong speaking to Red Guards, 6 April 1967.

Source B

I spent eight years stirring up revolution. It was like losing a large part of your life. Now I would like to do something to help my country, but what qualifications do I have? I never finished school.

A former Red Guard speaking in 1980.

DEPTH STUDY F: ISRAELIS AND PALESTINIANS, 1945-c.1994

- 6 Study the sources, and then answer the questions that follow.

Source A

What can be said of Mr Sieff's attackers, the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine? Brutal, unfeeling, ruthless, worse than any ordinary criminal. The PLO declares that the rights of the Palestinian Arabs justify atrocities everywhere in the world. This is a policy for endless conflict.

From a British newspaper, January 1974, commenting on the attempted killing of a Jewish businessman in Britain.

Source B

In 1968 Yasser Arafat tried to coordinate the activities of the various Palestinian terrorist groups. The terrorists were seen by most of their people as heroic freedom fighters aiming to regain their homeland. The Israelis however regarded them as agents of murder and sabotage. Letter bombs and other forms of attack on individuals were also used. The guerrilla raids have spread terror but no military victory has been achieved. Some extremists aim to destroy Israel. Many support the aims of Al Fatah. Some groups believe only in peaceful means.

From a British textbook published in 1977.

- (a) (i) Study Source A.

What can you tell from this source about the attitudes of the PLO? Support your answer with reference to the source. [6]

- (ii) Study Source B.

- (ii) What part did Yasser Arafat play in the PLO in the 1970s? [4]

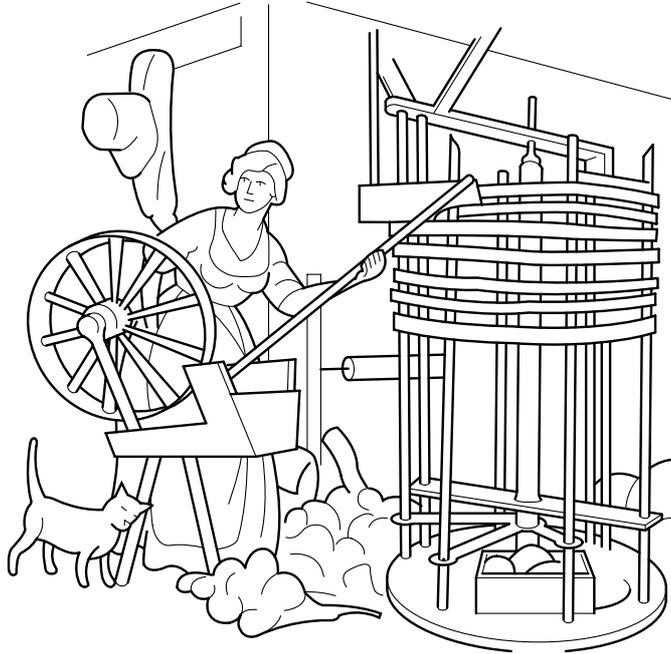

- (iii) Why did the PLO feel there was a need to use terrorism? [6]

- (iv) Has terrorism by the PLO helped or hindered the Arab-Israeli peace process? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY G: THE CREATION OF MODERN INDUSTRIAL SOCIETY

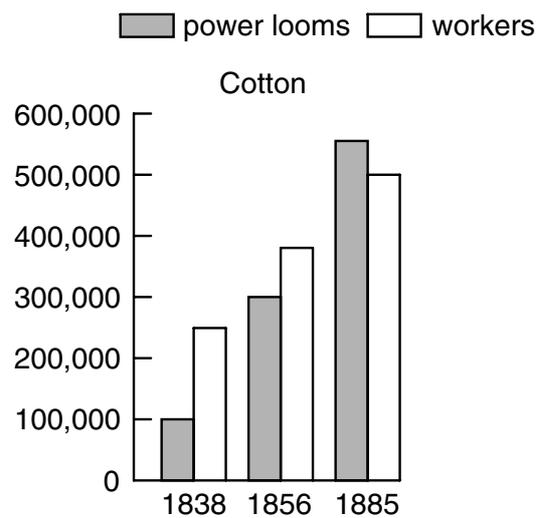

7 Study the sources, and then answer the questions that follow.

Source A

An eighteenth-century picture showing a woman spinning and winding wool for the hand loom in the domestic system.

Source B

Numbers of power looms and workers in the cotton industry in 1838, 1858, and 1885.

Source C

The English spinner has no enjoyment of the open air. Locked up in factories eight storeys high, he has no relaxation until the engine stops and then he goes home to rest for the next day. There is no time for happy times with his family for they are exhausted. Women used to do textile work at home and so be able to cook and care for their families. But now all the cotton is worked by a machine, called the devil, so that the wives have no employment unless they go to work in the factory all day for a few shillings per week.

(a) (i) Study Source A.

What impressions of the domestic system does this picture give? Support your answer with reference to the source. [6]

(ii) Study Source C.

To what extent does this source prove that the factory system had a bad effect on society? Explain your answer. [7]

(iii) Study all three sources.

How useful are these sources for showing the development of the textile industry? Explain your answer. [7]

(b) (i) Identify two centres of the woollen industry at the beginning of the nineteenth century. [2]

(ii) Describe how the Spinning Jenny and the power loom speeded up textile manufacture. [4]

(iii) Why was there increased demand for cotton textiles in the nineteenth century? [6]

(iv) Was the availability of a cheap labour force the main reason for the development of the British textile industry in the nineteenth century? Explain your answer. [8]

DEPTH STUDY H: THE IMPACT OF WESTERN IMPERIALISM IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

8 Study the sources, and then answer the questions that follow.

Source A

A German cartoon about British imperialism with the caption 'Whisky, Exploitation and Christianity'.

Source B

This is what Britain must either do or perish. She must found colonies as fast and as far as she is able with our most energetic and worthiest men. She must seize every piece of fruitful waste ground she can set her foot on and then teach the people there that their first loyalty is to Britain and that their first aim is to advance the power of Britain by land and sea. If we can get men, for little pay, to fight for love of Britain, we may find men also who will plough and sow for her and who will bring up their children to love her and who will gladden themselves in the brightness of her glory.

An extract from a speech made in Britain in the 1880s.

(a) (i) Study Source A.

What can you tell about German attitudes towards British imperialism from this cartoon? Support your answer with reference to the source. [6]

(ii) Study Source B.

To what extent does this extract give an accurate view about British aims in colonisation in the 19th century? Explain your answer. [7]

(iii) Study both sources.

Which is the more useful source as evidence about the nature of Western imperialism in the 19th century? Explain your answer. [7]

(b) (i) Name two European countries and a colony which each established in the nineteenth century. [2]

(ii) Describe the work of missionaries in European imperialism. [4]

(iii) Why did Britain have a larger overseas empire than any other European country by the end of the nineteenth century? [6]

(iv) 'Of all the causes of Western imperialism in the nineteenth century, economic factors were the most important.' Do you agree? Explain your answer. [8]
